New Lawn Sign at the Sutter-Meyer Farmhouse!

An Eagle-Scout Project

Jacob Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Palmer, produced a beautiful new Sutter-Meyer lawn sign (see photo at right) as his Eagle Scout project.

Our new lawn sign is absolutely perfect! We thank Jacob for his good work, and his parents for their support of his project.

Yard Sale at the Sutter-Meyer Farmhouse Saturday, October 27 9 am to 3 pm

Mark your calendars – and tell your friends and neighbors! You'll find all sorts of items of interest. We have decided to hold our sale at the farmhouse rather than at Heman Park this year. If we get a good turnout, we'll do it again next year. So, y'all come!

Storm Windows Are Installed!

If you are in the neighborhood, stop by to get a look at the beautiful (and protective) storm windows installed last month by Mosby. They even washed the windows before doing the installation. The dark-green enameled aluminum storm windows blend beautifully with the newly refurbished and painted green windows.

Historical Societies Meet at County Library

On Saturday, August 25, the Sutter-Meyer Society took part in the annual gathering of historical societies at the St Louis County Library main branch for the first time. We appreciated the invite to participate in this yearly event and publicize our fine organization. Carol Diaz-Granados, SMS president (right), and Bonnie Tesson, SMS secretary, “manned” a table with brochures, photos, signs, and newsletters.

Holiday Open House at the Sutter-Meyer Farmhouse Saturday, December 1, 2018

10 am to 4 pm
Free!

Everyone is invited to a holiday open house at the Sutter-Meyer Farmhouse. There will be light refreshments, beautiful decorations, and a special display of decorated Christmas trees! This is part of a city-wide effort to promote historical societies in the greater St. Louis area.

Please stop by for a visit, have some refreshments, and sit a spell. We will have a listing of all the other historical societies offering open houses, too!
